

A Partnership Approach

The school will try to involve your child in decisions about their learning

The school's arrangements for consulting with children with special educational needs about their education are listed:

- Child friendly targets will be reviewed with the child by the teacher or teaching assistant.
- Pupil friendly review paperwork will be used to consult with the child.
- Staff and teaching assistants will record and monitor the child's viewpoint and progress.
- Staff will consult with the child to gather as much information about the child as possible.
- Staff will make detailed observations of the youngest children to find out their interests/strengths/areas of support needed.
- The School Council will represent pupil voice and will include a cross-section of pupils on the School Council Body.
- The school may involve your child in Person Centred reviews.
