

Open and honest communication

Your child's progress will be reviewed regularly and you will be invited into school to discuss the outcomes and give your views. Your child will also be able to give their views

The school's arrangements for assessing and reviewing the progress / transition of children with special educational needs and for consulting with children with special educational needs and parents of children with special educational needs and involving such parents in the education of their child.

- Your child's progress will be reviewed regularly through Teacher Assessment and QCA / SATs testing.
- Your child's progress will be discussed with you at Parents' Evenings.
- Your child's progress will be discussed at Pupil Progress Meetings.
- If we have a concern about your child at any meetings we will invite you to share our concerns with you.
- We will invite you to Review Meetings and Annual Review Meetings to discuss the progress of your child and to draw up new targets for your child.
- Your child's views are very important to us and we will consult with them at their own level.
- You may make an appointment with the class teacher and/or SENCo at any time.
- Any information gathered from external agencies will be shared with you and you will be asked for your views.
- Your views are very important to us and we will consider them at all times and for Transitions.
