Success for Aston Tower as it wins the Leading Parent Partnership Award again

Dear Parents,

We are delighted to share that Aston Tower has won the Leading Parent Partnership Award for the second time. Congratulations to Mrs Rai-Moore whose hard work has been recognised for the school, winning this important award. Mrs Rai-Moore has spent the last two years working to achieve this award for Aston Tower on top of her other responsibilities.

The assessor judged the evidence for winning the award that Mrs Rai-Moore produced as excellent and one of the best she has seen. The assessor talked of the high-quality work the school has provided for parents in lots of different areas of school life. She was impressed by the meetings we have had about phonics, Year 6 SATs to name a few.

The assessor noted the 'love, care and pride' with which Mrs Rai-Moore and I show to create an excellent learning environment for the school to thrive in. It spoke of how displays 'celebrated pupils' identities and heritages.'

The assessor judged that the Head and Deputy 'make every effort to offer bespoke support for 'a range of individuals, their siblings and wider families', and leaders who 'engage fully with parents and the wider community in their aspiration to serve and ensure all pupils thrive.' The assessor said that Mrs Rai-Moore and I had ensured the school was highly ambitious for all pupils. She commented that Mrs Rai-Moore's recognition of the importance of working with parents is key to a school's success.

A number of parents were interviewed. Thank you for talking with such pride about our school for giving your time.
