

Drums, Guitar or Bass Guitar Tuition & Rock School

2017

Dear Parent,

If you are reading this then your child is interested in learning to play the drums, the guitar or bass guitar. Congratulations!

As a musician of 20 years, I have taught pupils of all abilities, ages and backgrounds. My students and I formulate a lesson plan based on individual interests and targets, above all learning to love the instrument.

Lessons at school are 15/30 minutes and cost £7.00/£14.00, collected at the beginning of each 6 week half term for the lessons ahead. The lesson time each week is rotated in a bid to cause minimum disruption to the school curriculum.

My students are also encouraged to join "Rock School", a one hour after school session (limited spaces available, day tbc) where they can play together with other musicians and learn the finer points of musicianship and how to work together on original and cover material. The current Rock School groups have performed at the last few school concerts and have enjoyed their first "gigs"!

Finally, I offer private music tuition out of school at my home studio just a few minutes round the corner on Fox Lane, for those students wishing to make more progress with less time constraints. These private lessons cost £25.00 per hour as often as you wish and offer the best ratio of time/cost.

Please feel free to get in touch to discuss this and any other questions you might have. I look forward to hearing from you!

Best wishes,

Matt McNicholas
