

Banks St Stephen's C of E School Music Policy

Through listening, appraising, singing, playing, improvising, composing and evaluating, children learn about the structure and organisation of music. We teach them to listen and to appreciate different forms of music from a variety of times and cultures and develop a greater understanding and appreciation of the world we live in.

We believe that every child should have the opportunity to achieve their musical potential and we aim to nutrure and encourage musical development across the school.

Banks St Stephen's C of E School understands that music can inspire and motivate children and pay an important role in personal development.

Banks St Stephen's C of E School delivers a broad and balanced music curriculum, in line with national requirements, which enables pupils to:

Perform, listen to, review and evaluate music across a range of historical periods, genres styles and traditions, including the works of the great composers and musicans.

Learn to sing and use their voices.

Create and compose music on their own and alongside their peers.

Have the opportunities to learn a musical instrument, use technology properly and to progress to the next level of musical excellence.

Understand and explore how music is created, produced and communicated, including through the inter-related dimensions: pitch, duration, dynamics, tempo, timbre, texture, structure and appropriate musical notations.
