BBC SEVEN WORLDS (continents) ONE WORLD

You may have seen the adverts for this new BBC series – David Attenborough was even on CBBC Blue Peter talking about it. We're really excited as all of our children learn about the world's seven continents. This series took 4 years to film and is going to show how diverse our precious planet is.

It's on Sundays at 6.15pm – real family viewing time. Let's watch it and be amazed!

SPELLING BEE COMPETITION

Unfortunately we are unable to take part due to a clash with staff training.

HEAD LICE

Please Note: Could you check your child's hair daily or at least weekly as we have had several reports of children with Head Lice.
