

A message from Miss Watts

Hi everyone,

Looking forward to the new half term on the run up to Christmas. If you have any questions about this newsletter, please don't hesitate to ask.

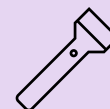

Writing

This half term we are going to be looking at Rapunzel and writing our own alternative traditional tale. We will be practicing all the skills we know, as well as learning how to use speech marks, noun phrases and adverbs. We will then create an information text based on the book Egyptology.

Science

In science, Willow 1 will be exploring light. We will be completing many investigations, some using torches.

History

In History, Willow 1 will be learning about Ancient Egyptians! We will look at their daily life, hieroglyphics and some significant Egyptians.

Reading

In reading lessons, Year 3 will take part in our twice-weekly 'Reading Theatre' sessions, where they will learn to build confidence and skill in reading aloud, developing their pace, fluency, expression, and prosody. This is in addition to the Little Wandle reading sessions 3 times a week.

DT

In DT we will be completing lots of cooking this half term! We are looking at where different foods comes from and if they are seasonal. We are starting with Jam Tarts!

PE

In PE we are going to be doing Dance (indoor/ Miss Watts) on THURSDAYS and Netball (outdoor/ with coach) on TUESDAYS.

Maths

In Maths, we are looking at lots of brand-new learning this half term. Column addition and subtraction plus perimeter! We will still be completing Maths meetings as often as we can to keep revisiting older topics.
