Learning, Enjoying & Succeeding Together

World Book Day – Thursday 6th March

This year's World Book Day will take place on Thursday, March 6th. We invite children to come to school dressed as a character from a book or as a bedtime story reader in their pyjamas.

Throughout the week, children will participate in a variety of activities, including quizzes, online author sessions, and ERIC (Everyone Reading in Class) sessions, where we pause everything for five minutes of reading. Each class will also enjoy a maths lesson inspired by a storybook and an English lesson exploring careers through storytelling. Additionally, an "Engineering Fairytale" will be broadcast into classrooms every afternoon.

Design a potato book character!

We will be running our very popular potato competition again and one winner from each base will be able to select a book of their choice from Amazon! Please bring your decorated potato in on Wednesday 5th March ready for judging on Thursday 6th March.

A simple search online will give you plenty of ideas, and here are some examples of previous winners.

Captain Underpants	Mr Bump	Albert Einstein (or Potatostein!)	Harry Potter

Please help us to make this a fantastic day full of reading and enjoying books!
