Y4 Autumn 2 Learning Overview

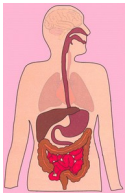

English

This half term, we will explore Alice in Wonderland to inspire our creative writing and develop our descriptive language. We will also learn about Ancient Egypt, using fascinating facts to write

Science - Animals including Humans

Our focus in science will be the digestive system. We will explore the different organs involved in digestion and learn how they work together to break down food and keep our

French – My town your town

Our French topic will be My Town, Your Town. We will learn vocabulary for places in a town and practise using simple

Mathematics

This half term, we will recap our addition and subtraction skills before moving on to multiplication and division. We will develop our confidence in using different meth[illegible] to solve calculations and

History -

This half term, we will explore the fascinating world of Ancient Egypt, learning about Egyptian gods, mummification and the discovery of Tutankhamun's tomb. We will also investigate the role of an

Music

in Music, we will learn to recognise and read musical notes C–G on the stave. We will explore how pitch is used in music and develop our skills in reading and writing musical notation to

Computing

This half term, in Computing, we will explore how hardware and software work together before creating our own audiobooks. We will plan and write scripts, record narration, add sound effects and edit our recordings

PE

C9 – Will be continuing their swimming lessons.

C10 – Will be developing their gymnastic skills

DT

This half term, in Design and Technology, we will explore shell structures and learn how to strengthen them using techniques such as laminating, corrugating and ribbing. We will design, make and evaluate our own shell structures, developing

RHE

This half term, in RHE, we will explore different ways to recognise and manage risks in everyday situations. We will develop our understanding of how to make safe, sensible decisions and kn[illegible] when to ask for help