Online Safety

Jamie Lewis & Chris Shearsmith

What are your worries & fears?

Risks to children & young people

Sexting

Inappropriate content

Cyberbullying

Online Grooming

Online Reputation

Online Pornography

Radicalisation

Privacy & Identity theft

Let's look at the facts

Concerns
of parents are worried about cyberbullying [1]

Communication of children who encounter cruel behaviour online don't tell their parents [2]

Frequency
rise in reports of cyberbullying between 2014 and 2015 [3]

Let's look at the facts

Habits
of children go online at home [1]

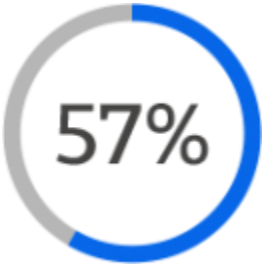
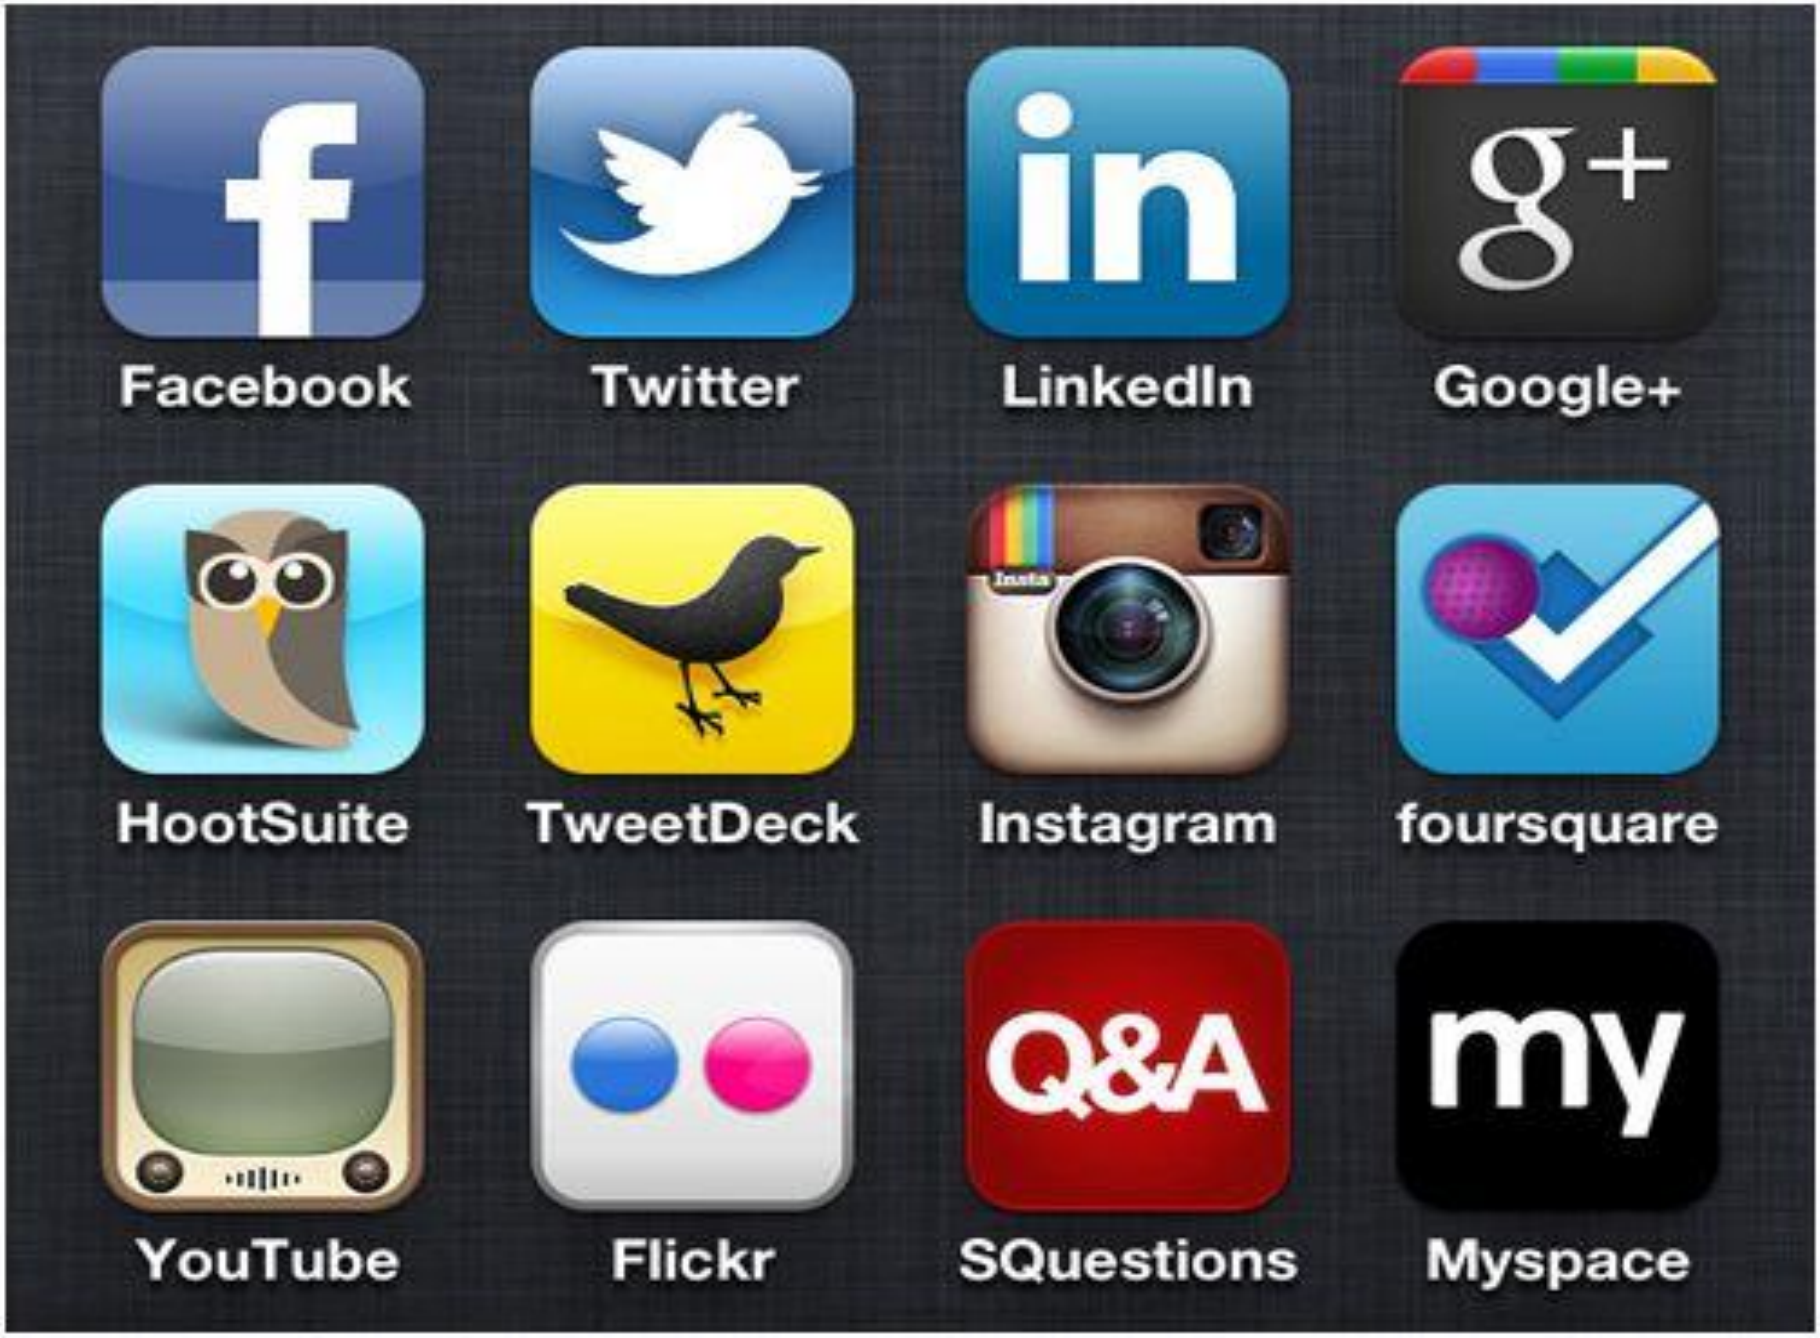
Awareness of parents say age-inappropriate content is their top concern [2]



Concerns
of children worry about coming across pornographic, violent or other unsuitable content [3]



Facebook
Twitter
LinkedIn
Google+
HootSuite
TweetDeck
Instagram
foursquare
YouTube
Flickr
SQuestions
Myspace

You
Tube

Put yourself in control

Search Safely

kids-search.com

swiggle.org

Agree Boundaries

Explore together

Check if it's suitable

Have confidence in yourself!!

Have a look?

Internetmatters.org

nspcc.org.uk/ShareAware

Childnet.com

Capt.org.uk

Thinkyouknow.co.uk