

Collective prayer - February 24th

Merciful God,

I feel far from You and separated from Your love. This path and the choices that have brought me here have made me feel far from Your embrace, O God.

I need Your touch and I need You to shine Your face upon me once more. I come before You with a humble and contrite heart, confessing my sins and seeking Your presence. Renew a right Spirit in me by Your grace and mercy. I praise You that You exalt the lowly and You do not turn away the meek-spirited. In Jesus' name, I pray.

Amen.

For the grace of God has appeared that offers salvation to all people.
