Tuesday 20th April, Period 2

Paper 2: Cold War

Tuesday 4th May, Period 2

Paper 3: Germany Part 1

Tuesday 11th May, Period 3

Paper 3: Germany Part 2

Tuesday 25th May, Period 3

These will ONLY assess what you have been taught.

There is NO Elizabeth topic.

Each assessment is 45 minutes long.

What will I have in the timed assessments?

- You will be provided with a structure sheet on your desk to help you construct your responses to the questions – this will be similar to what you were provided with in the Mock Exam.
- You will have an exam paper which you will write your responses in.
- You will NOT have access to notes or classwork.

What topics should I revise?

Crime and Punishment

Focus your revision around these topic areas:

- 1. Law enforcement between the Anglo-Saxon and Early Modern Period
- 2. The purpose of punishments between the Anglo-Saxon and Early Modern Period
- 3. The case studies of the Early Modern Period

What topics should I revise?

Cold War

Focus your revision around these topic areas:

1. Cold War Crises

- Cuban Missile Crisis, Berlin Wall, Prague Spring

2. End of the Cold War

- Gorbachev's New Thinking

What topics should I revise?

Germany

We will confirm after the Easter holidays where to focus your revision on for the Germany topic.

For now, focus on revising Crime & Punishment and Cold War.
