

Collective prayer - March 26th

Dear Lord,

Teach me to love, to be kind, to be honest, to be respectful. Teach me to look out for others as they would for me. Teach me to find happiness in myself, and project it onto those I love. I want to be the best that I can be, to show that I care, to be more open to my friends and my family. Please help me to do so.

Amen

Psalms 147:5- Great is our Lord, and mighty in power; His understanding is infinite.
