St. Catherine of Siena

St. Catherine of Siena

Feast Day: 29th April

St. Catherine of Siena was born in Sienna, Italy 1347. She was the 25th child born to her mother.

Her parents wanted her to get married but she refused to and so she cut her hair and prayed to Jesus and Mary. Catherine of Siena loved to give away her food and clothing to help the poor. She loved helping governments in different countries (politics) and tried to stop countries going to war with each other.
