

School Buildings

Measures put in place by school

- There will be lots of signage and posters up around the school. Students should pay close attention to the guidance on them.
- The one-way system will be clearly signed and all students must follow it.
- Plasma screens will also be used to share key information.
- The school building will appear very open as, where appropriate, doors will be kept propped open as far as possible in line with fire regulations.