

Reading Challenge

If you have been following the news recently you will have seen a lot about the 'Black Lives Matter' marches and the big movement to address racism.

There are many other books that look at the issues of racism and what it is like to experience racism. You will find some suggestions below.

Remember that books with * can be found on the Wheelers ePlatform.

The Hate U Give by Angie Thomas*

On the Come Up by Angie Thomas*

Noughts and Crosses by Malorie Blackman*

The Curious Lady of Caraboo by Catherine Johnson

Freedom by Catherine Johnson

Ghost Boys by Jewell Parker Rhodes

To Kill a Mockingbird by Harper Lee

Reaching for the Moon. The Autobiography of NASA Mathematician Katherine Johnson

Hidden Figures. The True Story of Four Black Women and the Space Race by Margot Shetterly

This Book is Anti Racist by Tiffany Jewell

For younger children a board book called 'A is for Activist' by Innosanto Nagara