Four key online safety issues...

1. Giving away personal information online
2. Sending and receiving inappropriate messages or images
3. Receiving horrible messages online or over text
4. Speaking to strangers

You wouldn't speak to a stranger on the streets so don't do it over the internet...

Meet me? 😞 xx

Who are you really talking to?

If I feel I really cannot tell an adult I trust what do I do?

The screenshot shows the CEOP website home page. At the top left is the CEOP logo with the text 'A National Crime Agency command'. To its right is the text 'Your advice, help and report centre...'. Below this is a pink bar with 'CEOP Home - Safety Centre'. The main content area features a background illustration of a child's face and a laptop displaying the 'CLICK CEOP Internet Safety' logo. A section titled 'Get help if you are...' has three colored boxes: a blue box for '5-7', a yellow box for '8-10', and a green box for '11-17', followed by a grey box for 'A Parent or Carer'. Below this is a grey box with 'Working with children'. At the bottom left is a green arrow icon and a black box with 'Other sources of help and advice'. At the bottom right is the UKCCIS logo and the text 'CEOP is a member of'. On the right side of the page, there is a dark blue sidebar with the heading 'Need immediate help?' and several paragraphs of text providing instructions on when to call 999 and how to report a concern.
