

Recommended Reading List for KS3

Autumn/Winter 2020-2021

Adventure

Catherine Doyle – The Stormkeeper's Island (Easy)

Rita Sepetys – Salt to the Sea (Average)

Nick Lake – There will be lies (Challenging)

Geraldine McCaughrean – The White Darkness (Average)

Jennifer Donnelly – A Gathering Light (Average)

Thriller

Chelsea Pitcher – This Lie Will kill you (Challenging)

Mary Watson – The Wickerlight (Average)

History

Ele Fountain – Boy 87 (Average)

Philip Reeve - Here Lies Arthur (Average)

Jamila Gavin – Coram Boy (Challenging)

Families, Relationships & Issues

A F Harrold – The Afterwards (Average)

Kiran Millwood Hargrave – The Island at the end of everything ((Average)

Kim Slater – Smart (Easy)

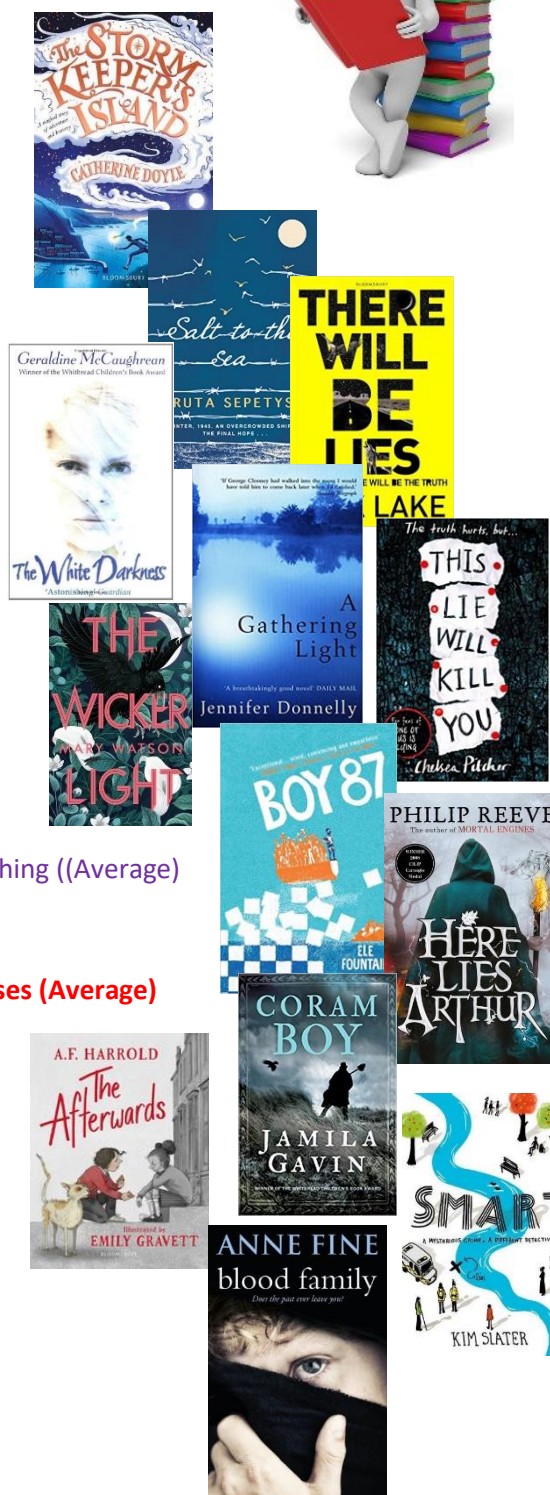

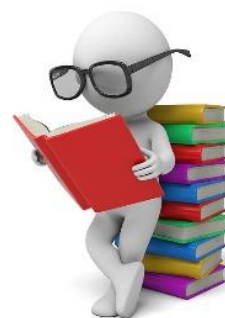

Bonnie Sue Hitchcock – The Smell of other People's houses (Average)

Anne Fine – Blood Family (Challenging)

Meg Rostoff – Picture me gone (Challenging)

Samuel Pollen – The Year I didn't eat (Average)

Lisa Williamson – Paper Avalanche (Average)

Prize Winners

Hilary McKay – The Skylarks War (Easy)

Sita Brahmachari – Artichoke Hearts (Challenging)

Zana Fraillon – The Bone Sparrow (Challenging)

Sara Crossan – One (Challenging)

Sioban Dowd – Bog Child (Average)

Short Stories

Tales from the Inner City – Shaun Tan (Easy)

Roald Dahl – Boy and Going Solo

War

Kate Saunders – Five Children on the Western Front (Challenging)

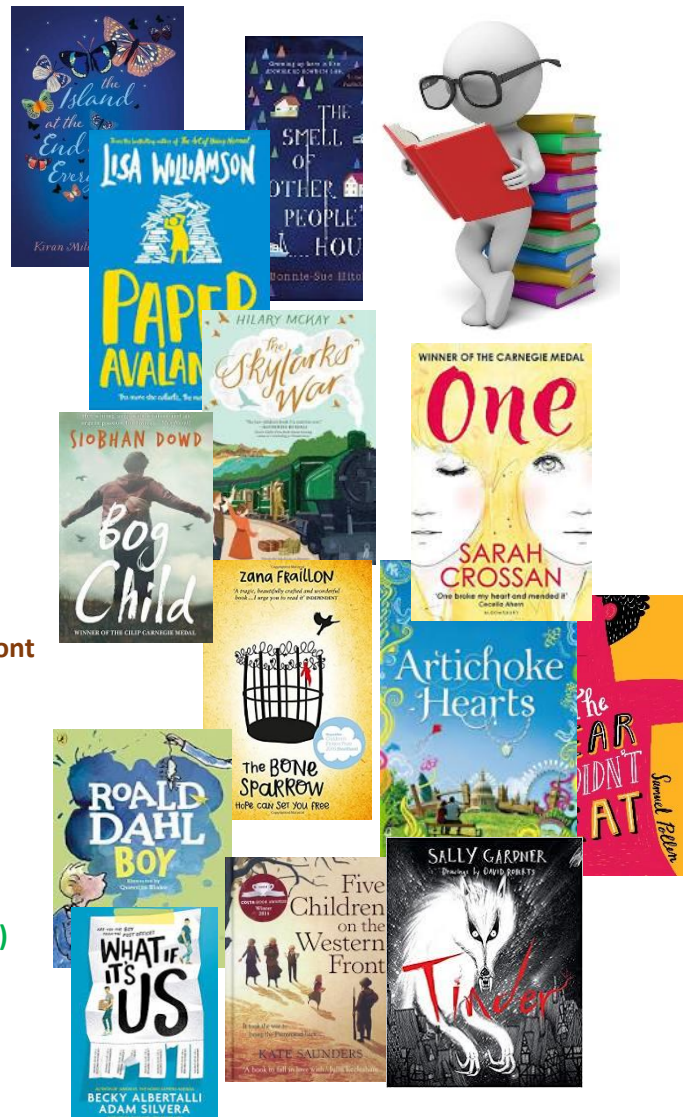

Derek Landy – Bedlam

Fantasy

Sally Gardner – Tinder (Easy)

Kevin Crossley-Holland – Norse Myths (Challenging)

Becky Alvertalli – What if it's us (Average)

Reluctant Readers

Tom Palmer – Armistice Runner (War)

Kwame Alexander – Rebound (Basketball)

Liz Pichon – Tom Gate Epic Adventure (Humour)

Smriti Prasad-Halls – The Ways of the Wolf (Fantasy)

Chris Priestley – Flesh and Blood (Horror)

Ethan & Vita Murrow – The Whale (Adventure)

