Our worship theme this week is 'Our School Values' and our collective worships will be led each day by Mr Duckworth. Our verse this week is James 3:17, which teaches us that true wisdom from God is pure, peaceful, gentle, open to reason, full of mercy and good fruits, impartial, and sincere.

WEEKLY MESSAGE

As we come to the end of our second week, we are starting to find our rhythm. Routines are forming, expectations are becoming clearer, and the pace is beginning to pick up. Much is new to everyone this year, and in the midst of all the change, it's natural to feel both excitement and uncertainty. Change can stretch us, but it also shapes us. It invites us to grow, to adapt, and to lean on one another. As a school rooted in faith, we believe that even when we feel uncertain, God is at work—guiding, strengthening, and preparing us for what lies ahead. I am reminded of Isaiah 43:18-19, "Forget the former things; do not dwell on the past. See, I am doing a new thing! Now it springs up; do you not perceive it? I am making a way in the wilderness and streams in the wasteland." Letting go of the past, embracing the present, and trusting in the new work God is doing—even when the path ahead feels unfamiliar. Whether your child is adjusting to a new class, facing fresh challenges, or simply finding their footing again with a new timetable, know that they are not alone. Let's continue to foster an environment where every student feels safe to grow, supported in change, and celebrated for who they are becoming.
