Definition

Looked after Children (LAC) are those in public care and are either:

- Subject to a Care Order or Interim Care Order, living either at home or away from home. The Local Authority has parental authority which it then shares with the parents in a prescribed way.
- Accommodated with friends or relatives, foster care or residential homes – parents retain full parental responsibility.
- Remanded into care.

Previously Looked After Children (PLAC) are no longer looked after by a local authority in England and Wales because they are the subject of an adoption, special guardianship or child arrangements order; or were adopted from 'state care' outside England and Wales.

A private agreement is not public care - when a child lives with friends or relatives by private arrangement and these children are not designated as Looked After or Previously Looked After.

Aims

That Looked after Children and Previously Looked after Children will prosper as per the Every Child Matters agenda that is to:

Rationale

- The national outcomes for Looked After Children in terms of educational achievement and subsequent life chances are of real concern.
