

Create a drawing of your hand with contour lines.
Imagine that you are layering string over your hand. Begin to draw the contours.

Contours can help to show something is curved.

A contour line can be used on any rounded object.

It is used to show the contours of an object.

It can be used on figures, animals, still life objects and even landscapes.