As the term draws to a close, all of us here at Park School wish everybody a very merry Christmas

We would like to inform you that Mrs Coxon is retiring after 9 years of service to Park School Teaching Service.

Mrs Coxon started Park School in 2012, and has mainly worked at the hospital. We would like to thank her for all her hard work and wish her well as she seeks new adventures in Wales.

Wellbeing

Wellbeing is very important to everybody at Park School. That is why we have a weekly dedicated time just for our wellbeing. During these times we often visit local parks, promoting walking, and conversation. Our visits also give students the opportunity to engage in sports such as basketball and football, if they wish to.

Students here at Park School were given the opportunity to attend the Knife Angel exhibit in Blackburn, which was constructed using knives taken from anonymous knife disposal boxes. Students enjoyed the exhibit and learned valuable lessons about society, reflection, and change.

When asked what they had learned from the experience, 1 year 10 student said, "How many knives could have been used to harm or kill people."

Black History

As October is Black History Month, this term students have explored Black History in some of their subjects. In English, Group C have been reading a fiction story based on the Windrush. In music, students were given the opportunity to play African drums, and in art students have created masks based on African masks and popular culture.
