

We are the anti-bullying ambassadors.

Bullying is intentional, repeated, negative behaviour

That makes another person feel sad and lonely.

It is bullying if it keeps on happening.

You can come to us if you are sad or lonely at break time.

We can't keep secrets but we will help you find a grown up to tell.

I'll be there for you

I found this poem on the internet and really liked it because it sounds just like our school. Our school is really kind and caring. We think it is really important to make sure there is no bullying and to tell you there's always someone there for you.

I hope you like it too. 😊

We don't bully in our school
Everyone is kind
No matter what you look like
We don't really mind.

Everybody's different
And that's what makes us great
But we all agree on one thing
There's no room for hate.

There's no place for bullies
Just friends both old and new
With one short simple message -
"I'll be there for you".

This poem is about racism,
which is judging people because of their skin colour or where they come from.
It shouldn't happen.

Racism is still out there grinning happy as can be.
Making them feel good and others feel bad.

Your skin does not matter.
Not one bit.
You are you, you should own
it.

Your skin colour does not matter.
You are you.

Fat or thin, smelly or clean.
We are all the same inside – humans.

We are different heights,
gender or even shoes!

But we are all humans and should be treated the same.

- I like playing the cello.
- I like reading books
- I like Dalmatians
- I like my school
- I like martial arts

We are all different!

Put your hand up to tell us something that you like.
