Exec Headteacher: Dale Barrowclough

9th July 2025

Dear Parent/Carer,

I just wanted to say a massive thank you to all students involved in Bradfest this year. They made the day so special, and I am once again in awe of the talent we have here at Bradfield School. I also want to thank all of you for your continuous support with our enrichment and extra-curricular events, there will be more to come next year.

Just a reminder of all our different music teachers who come into school and deliver private lessons to students. We currently have six teachers and a variety of different instruments. If your child is interested in having lessons, please either contact me directly, or email one of our music teachers. Please see below for their information:
