

EYFS

Journey

An act of travelling from one place to another.

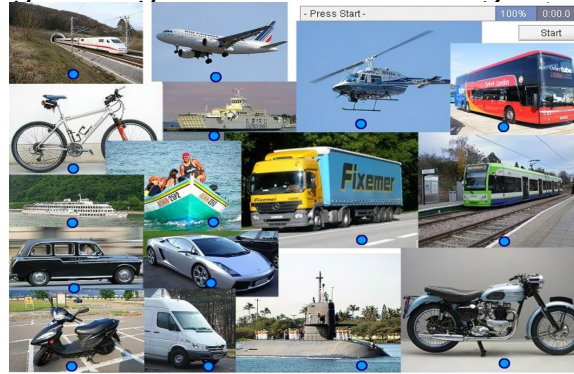

A journey could be for a holiday or a day trip.

Passenger

A person who is travelling in that vehicle but who is not driving it.

Knowledge Organiser: Journeys

Transport

You can travel using different types of transport, for example car, bus train, plane or even simply walking.

Bus station

A place where a bus arrives and departs.

Term: Autumn 2

Conductor

A person who is responsible for collecting fares from passengers.