

What can be done to reduce racism? Can religion help?

Key Information

Christians believe that God treated everybody equally.

Some people stand up for what they believe, despite the risks.

People should not be treated differently because of their race or faith.

Martin Luther King

Nelson Mandela

Vocabulary

justice	fairness
racism	Where someone treats another person differently because their skin colours, religion or beliefs are different than their own prejudice	Unfair or unreasonable opinion or feeling discrimination	Treating a person unfairly because of who they are or because they possess certain characteristics
race	a group of people who share physical characteristics, such as skin colour and facial features
faith	Belief in a religion or God

