

EYFS Knowledge Organiser: Transport Term: Autumn 2 Term 1

Transport

You can travel using different types of transport, for example car, bus train, plane or even simply

Journey

An act of travelling from one place to another.
A journey could be for a holiday or a day trip.

Train station

A train station is where people can get on and off the train.

Carriage

A carriage is used for the carrying the passengers. There are lots carriages all joined together to make a long train.

Ticket

A ticket is a small but very important piece of paper that shows that you have paid.

Conductor

A conductor is the person who takes tickets, shouts "All aboard!" and might control the engine.