Homework

Maths

Please encourage your children to complete their arithmetic homework. As well as this, we encourage children to be using TTRockstars and Sumdog to develop their basic skills with number and times tables—essential knowledge needed for SATs and beyond.

Homework is handed out on a Monday and to be returned the following Monday. Children can complete their homework during morning task time if they would like a teacher to help them.

Reading

Children need to read their book to develop fluency. We will change the books when needed. Children are to log their reading on the Boom Reader app to record. Children can also use reading plus at home to level up and earn their next certificate, children need to get 10 combos. A combo is earned by scoring 80%+ on the books' comprehension questions.

Curriculum

Our author of the half term is Anthony Horowitz, who wrote the Alex Rider novel series.

We will be continuing with our history topic of the Mayas this half-term, linking with one of our English texts 'Rain Player'. We will then be transitioning to our geography topic of 'Rivers', which will allow us to carry out some field work in our local area.
