Brand New Project - Healing Arts for All – Participants needed - Join us for this exciting opportunity to a 12 week art project at Northlight Mill. Working with two artists, participants will research and explore what life was like in Lancashire's industrial era for South Asian communities, and how this shaped Pendle and its residents today and use art as a vehicle to respond to this. We will also include trips to Lancashire Archives, Northwest Film archives, Manchester Science and History Museum and a tour of Northlight Mill.
