

Thank you to everybody who donated to the Red Nose Day fundraiser today! We will let you know the total raised next week!

Dear parents carers, It's that time again, sign your child/children up and state whether you would like the Brierfield venue or Hodge House, Nelson venue. Please use the link below to register your child/children. <https://harringtonslearningcentre.co.uk/fun-vibes-active-lives-registration/>

The Great British Spring Clean starts today! This is a litter picking campaign launched by Keep Britain Clean and is a national event. The eco council have ask the whole school to support us during this project, so some children from every year group will be taking part. We are really looking forward to joining thousands of other young people to take action against litter and protect their environment.
