

A day in the life of a Year 7 at Werneth

School starts at 8.40am

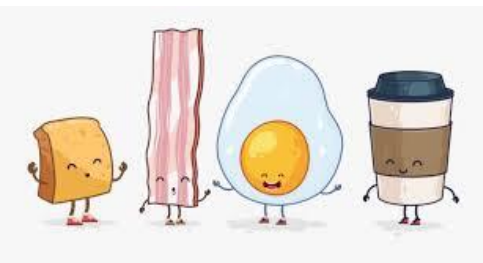

You arrive to school via the student entrance. You will be greeted by SLT (Senior Leadership Team) who will do a uniform check and welcome you into school.

If you are missing uniform the year team will help get you borrow uniform for the day. The uniform is brought back at the end of the day to your head of year.

Once in school you can head to our friends and grab some breakfast.

The morning bell rings at 8.40am

When the bell rings you will head to your form room.

When you arrive at your form room your form tutor will be waiting to greet you at the door. They will check your uniform and make sure you are sitting in the correct sit.

They will help you with worries or concerns you may have and set you up ready for your school day.

Make sure you ask if you are unsure of what lesson you have that day.

Form Time

8.45 - 9.05am

Within form time you will explore a number of topics. Your form tutor will set activities, discuss your lessons, attendance matters and hand out letters and messages. They will also discuss any concerns they have in regards to positive and negative behaviours.

On a Monday morning your form tutor will bring you down to assembly in the main hall. You will sit with your form group and your form tutor.

Break Time
