

Privacy Notice – School-Based Initial Teacher Trainees

Under data protection law (the General Data Protection Regulation), individuals have a right to be informed about how any personal data being held is used. We comply with this right via 'privacy notices' (sometimes called 'fair processing notices') which individuals are referred to, when we need to process their personal data. This privacy notice explains how we collect, store and use personal data about individuals we employ, or otherwise engage, to work within our Red Rose Alliance.

We, the Red Rose Alliance, who deliver the Bishop Rawstorne School Based programme, are the 'data controller' for the purposes of data protection law. Our data protection officer is Lynn Hood – lhood@bishopr.co.uk.

We process data relating to those we employ, or otherwise engage, to work at our initial teaching training institutes. Personal data that we may collect, use, store and share (when appropriate) about you includes, but is not restricted to:

Some of the reasons listed above for collecting and using personal information about you overlap, and there may be several grounds which justify the alliance's use of your data.

Change of purpose

We will only use your personal information for the purposes for which we collected it, unless we reasonably consider that we need to use it for another reason and that reason is compatible with the original purpose. If we need to use your personal information for an unrelated purpose, we will notify you and we will explain the legal basis which allows us to do so.

We may process your personal information without your knowledge or consent, in compliance with the above rules, where this is required or permitted by law.

Collecting this information

While the majority of information we collect from you is mandatory, there is some information that you can choose whether or not to provide to us.
