CRAFT YOURSELF – PORTRAIT MAKING!

Saturday 26 October
1pm–2.30pm
Hands on History Museum

At the Hands on History Museum you can meet John Smythson, who was master cook to Elizabeth I, or George and Elianor Crowle, well known figures from 17th Century Hull, via their magnificent portraits on display in the Story of Hull Gallery.

Join us at the museum to be inspired by these faces and create your own portrait of yourself, your family or friends. Perhaps it too will be on display in a museum one day!

Free, drop-in.

WHERE'S WALLY: THE BIG MUSEUM HUNT

Saturday 26 October –
Sunday 3 November
Hull Maritime Museum

Join the search for Wally with your family at the Hull Maritime Museum this half term. We're part of the national Where's Wally? The Big Museum Hunt, organised by Kids in Museums and Walker Books, to celebrate the release of the new Where's Wally? book, Double Trouble at the Museum.

Can you find Wally in our collections? Pick up an activity sheet and get a special sticker if you do!

ARTIST LED DRAWING WORKSHOP

Thursday 31 October
10am–12noon
Ferens Art Gallery

As part of the Big Draw celebration week, join local artists, the Dirar Family, for a chance to take part in a drop-in drawing experience that looks at the theme of journeys. The drawing workshop will be hosted by local emerging artists, the Dirar Family, who create work from their own experiences as former refugees.
