Introduction

Burscough Priory Science College is an inclusive school which provides a safe environment for children to learn and achieve. As part of these principles, safeguarding is a top priority so that children can develop without fear of danger or abuse. As part of our safeguarding policies and procedures, we are fully committed to supporting parents and other agencies in preventing children and young people being exposed to radicalisation. We adhere to the importance of British Values and encourage children and young people to debate controversial issues. However, all staff are trained to evaluate the distinction between moderate and extremist behaviour.

School students participate in a curriculum that promotes active learning and develops critical personal thinking skills. The school's focus on active learning and questioning enables students to explore social and emotional aspects of learning throughout the curriculum. The School actively promotes diversity and shared values between the school community, the local community, the national and global community. We do this by celebrating our own school values of Community. These School Values form the basis of our students understanding of wider communities and there are numerous academic and pastoral opportunities that embed this ethos. The school challenges all prejudices including Islam phobia and anti-Semitism recognising students who are at risk of isolation. The emphasis on pastoral care through the tutor system, Rewards and Consequences, assemblies, tutor slides, PSHE, citizenship and enrichment activities ensure that the school is a safe place to learn and that anti bullying strategies minimise hate and prejudice based bullying. The school seeks justice for incidences of such bullying and uses restorative approaches to repair harm when caused.

PREVENT

This is the government strategy to target terrorist groups in the UK and abroad. The main focus is to prevent repeats of terrorist acts such as the devastating attacks that killed 52 people in London on the 7th July 2005. There are four strands to the strategy:

- Pursue – to stop terrorist attacks
- Prevent – To stop people becoming terrorists or supporting terrorism
- Protect – to strengthen our protection against a terrorist attack
- Prepare – to mitigate the impact of terrorist attacks

Since 1st July, schools now have a duty to safeguard children from radicalization under the Terrorism and Security Act (2015).

Channel

This is a multi-agency approach to support individuals who are being radicalised by others. Once a person has been identified, positive action is taken by representatives from the police, social care and education to engage the person in alternative activities. They are also given a mentor to help them discuss their views and ideas which is especially useful if they have distorted views on religion or politics.

It is important to highlight that this process is there for genuine concerns about an individual and not someone who has radical ideas about a subject. Many people who begin to show signs that they are being radicalised show other characteristics such as mental health problems, drug or alcohol abuse and other symptoms which make them vulnerable. We must remember that many young people develop opinions and ideas as they become more independent and this does not necessarily mean that they are being radicalised.

Aims & Principles

All staff are committed to safeguarding at Burscough Priory Science College and are fully aware of the dangers of the radicalisation of children and young people. This policy supports our responsibility to protect pupils in association with other local and national agencies.

The key principals are that teachers, non-teaching staff and governors will:

- Have received training on this policy and understand the signs related to radicalisation. In addition, they know the procedures in any disclosures or concerns about a child or young person.
- Understand the importance of promoting British Values as part of the ethos of the school and listen to the child about fears or concerns that they may have in light of any terrorist event.

Tackling Extremism

Burscough Priory Science College is a tolerant and safe environment for pupils to learn and achieve. In tackling extremism, we will be vigilant in looking for signs of extremist behaviour and all staff will be aware of the procedures in place for reporting concerning behaviour.

Evidence of extremist behaviour may take the following form:

- Disclosure by pupils about extremist or radicalised behaviour. This could be in the form of exposure to materials outside of school.
- Use of specific terms that are associated with specific ideological views e.g. use of 'hate' language.
- Intelligence reports from local and national agencies regarding the radicalisation of groups of people in a locality.
- Focus on specific narratives that highlight particular extremist views.
- Evidence of accessing online materials (including social media sites) that include extremist materials.
- Refusal to accept views expressed by others which counter the schools equality policy.
- Concerns raised by parents or carers about the changing behaviour of their child.
- References to an extremist narrative in pupils work.

Making a Judgement

When making a judgment, staff will ask themselves the following questions:

- Does the child have access to extremist influences through the internet e.g. via closed network groups or through liaison with organisations or members of the community?
- Does the child possess or actively seek extremist literature/other media likely to incite racial or religious hatred?
- Does the child sympathize or support extremist groups or behaviour in their vocal support for terrorist attacks or in their written work?
- Does the child's outward appearance suggest a new social, religious or political influence e.g. jewellery, tattoo, clothing?
- Has the child been a victim of a race hate or religious crime?
- Has the child had major disagreements with peers, family or faith groups which has led to rejection, isolation or exclusion?
- Does the child display an irregular and distorted view of religion or politics?
- Does the child show a strong objection to specific cultures, races or religions?
- Is the child a foreign national awaiting a decision about deportation or immigration?
- Is there an irregular pattern of travel by the child's family?
- Has the child witnessed or suffered from trauma or violence in a war zone or through sectarian conflict?
- Is there evidence of a relative or family friend having extremist views?

Referrals

In line with our safeguarding procedures, staff are fully aware of reporting extremist behaviour. The following system for referrals is as follows:

- Any disclosures or concerns of extremist behaviour should be referred to the named Designated Safeguarding Lead/Officer Mrs K. Walton
- All incidents will be investigated in line with current policies and evidence will be recorded and retained for school records.
- Parents/carers will be contacted and the issue will be discussed with them to investigate whether there are any mitigating home circumstances. A decision will be made at this meeting to look at any further external agency support and whether a referral should be made.
- The DSO will follow up any referrals and the child or young person will be monitored for a period of time to look at whether there has been any change in attitude or behaviour. Parents/carers will be consulted during this period of time.
- If concerns are still expressed, the DSO will contact the Channel Coordinator for Lancashire: DS 1436 Maxine Monks Telephone 01772 413029 or 07943050822 OR Email Channelreferrals@lancashire.pnn.police.uk to discuss the next steps.

Curriculum/British Values

Burscough Priory Science College provides a broad and balanced curriculum and pupils are encouraged to discuss different issues but have respect and tolerance for those with different views. The PHSE (Personal Health & Social Education) curriculum enables students to learn about their emotional and social wellbeing which includes ways to understand the processes of radicalisation and grooming.

In Citizenship students are able to look at relevant news stories and relate this to the rule of law and democracy. As part of Religious Education, pupils learn about different religions and gain skills around tolerance and respect for diversity in the UK. Finally, in the Computing curriculum, pupils learn about keeping safe when they are on the internet and understanding the need to keep personal information private.

Within all these subject areas, pupils learn about the importance of British values and why they are important for a fair and equal society. These are also part of our system for electing school council members and the decisions that pupils are able to make when they are asked for their opinion.

ICT Services

The school purchases technical services and connectivity from Research Machines and Lancashire Country Council and is committed to safeguarding children and staff when using the school network. The ICT infrastructure has a filtering solution in place to block inappropriate content and if a breach occurred and access to radicalisation material happened, the school would follow its e-safety incident management procedure to blacklist the site.

Use of External Speakers

Vetting of all external speakers would follow our safeguarding procedures and we would not allow any such speaker that undermined the principles and ethos of the British Values endorsed by the school.

Policy Review

This policy is linked to the safeguarding/child protection policy and will be reviewed at least every year. The next planned date for review is April 2017. There is also a summary of this policy within the Safeguarding policy.

Staff Training

Staff will receive safeguarding and child protection training at least every year in line with the relevant policies. Anti-radicalisation will also be incorporated into e-safety training and will be updated in line with emerging online behaviours.
