

Respect

Caring

Creativity

Divine Days
Community Arts
In Schools®

“Art washes away from the soul the dust of everyday life.”

Pablo Picasso

Divine Days®

for more information and to book places please contact Katie Whitehead on:
07896 137 236 or 01704 891336
katie@divinedays.co.uk
www.divinedays.com

Our workshops look at:

- SEAL: Social and emotional aspects of learning
- PSHE: Personal social and health education
- Restorative Practice Arts Award

Respect for me for you for each other

Creativity for me for you for each other

Our Approach:

Divine Days works in conjunction with your School and works alongside the daily running so as to minimise any disruption to routine and teaching staff. Divine Days prides itself in its flexible and creative approach to ensure your objectives and desired outcomes. Our workshops are evidenced in a practical and unique way to monitor and evaluate process. Divine Days offers a bespoke service working with a therapeutic frame work to deliver a school specific programme that explores how self-expression can promote Health and Wellbeing.

What people have said about Divine Days School Workshops:

- "Divine Days was instrumental in our introductory year of Restorative Practice providing all of our children with Therapeutic Art sessions to explore their emotions and feelings."
Primary School Restorative Lead
- "Divine Dance have been inspirational in their performances that they have delivered to our school and wider community."
Primary School Deputy Head
- "Absolutely mind blowing! I have never seen the children so still and engaged."
Secondary School Teacher
- "Me and my class thought the performance was incredible and inspiring. Thank you."
Secondary School pupil

Our workshops promote:

- Health and Wellbeing
- Mutual respect
- Acceptance of diversity
- Challenging perceptions
- Emotional intelligence
- An inclusive approach to problem solving
- Feelings needs and views of everyone
- Balance between belief and actions
- The deliberate creation of safe and supportive school culture
- Promoting communities where all are encouraged to listen

Our workshops look at preventing:

- Bullying
- Criminal damage in school
- Classroom conflict
- Poor attendance
- Exclusion

Workshops on offer:
THERAPEUTIC ART, DANCE and DRAMA to explore emotion and situation.

Diversity Performance Workshops performed and delivered by Divine Dance - all our Dancers have additional needs.

Community Art Murals where the children work alongside the Artists to produce bespoke pieces of art.

Creative Relaxation sessions designed to support nurture groups and children at risk.

