BURTON AGNES CE PRIMARY SCHOOL

Friday News

A note from Mrs. Jameson

It has been a lovely week here at Burton Agnes. We have all enjoyed thinking about Harvest this week. The children have given some very thoughtful responses about what Harvest is. They came up with many words which we all felt linked to our school values of friendship, care and trust.

Please can I pass on my gratitude to everyone who has sent in produce to make up our Harvest Parcels. Chatting to parents about it this week, they have all commented on how well these gifts are received within our school community. This evening almost 50 parcels will be going home with the children to give to older relatives or neighbours. I am sure that they will bring comfort in these difficult times.

Parent consultations

Today you should have received a letter explaining the way that we will be carrying out our parent consultations this term. Usually this is a time to welcome you in to school to chat about your child and their progress. Due to current circumstances, the face to face meetings are not an option and we feel that the most efficient way to carry out these conversations is over the phone. Please read the letter carefully and return your preferences for the time you would like your call to be scheduled as soon as possible. Phone calls will take place W/C 19th October.

We have been advised that from Monday if you are coming in to reception for any reason you need wear a face mask as it is a public area. Thank you

Look out for an email with the new three week dinner menu on that will start after half term.

FOBAS Harvest Supper

HARVEST FESTIVAL PICTURE WANTED

FOBAS would like BA pupils to design a picture to go on top of the Harvest Supper box. What does Harvest Festival mean to you? You can draw the variety of food we have, how it has been grown, the journey your food has been on to get to your plate. You can draw the people, the jobs, the weather we need for food to grow, the machinery, the food we eat, whatever you think might make a lovely picture to go on the top of the Harvest Supper box and help people to appreciate food. We will then use some of the designs to print onto the harvest festival boxes which are available to order through FOBAS or here Harvest Supper Box. Your design can be scanned or take a photo of the design and email it to..... friendsofburtonagnesschool@gmail.com By Tuesday 13th of October 12 noon * hold on to the original so we can scan it. Please keep the design inside the 17cm x 17cm box below - good luck to all pupils

World War Two Day for Class 4

On Wednesday the children in Class 4 experienced the most fabulous day of learning linked to our whole school learning theme of 'Heroes and Villains'. As part of their learning in History the children are finding out about life in World War two and will also be thinking about how World War two impacted the lives of people who lived in our locality. The children were immersed in hands on learning and took in a wealth of information that they will revisit as the term goes on. The children were excited to share their learning and were inspired to want to find out more

Don't forget to return your online flu consent. Monday is the last day.

Have a lovely weekend.
