A note from Mrs Jameson

With only one week left of this half term the children are still demonstrating fantastic attitudes to their learning. It is always a pleasure to listen to the children talking about their learning and this week has been no exception. The children in Class 1 impressed me with how quickly they are learning their phonics, already using them to enable them to read and write with confidence. Class 2 have been learning about their family tree and have produced the most amazing work, in their own time, to illustrate their own family trees. Class 3 have been writing leaflets, providing historical information for time travellers to read. Their recall of knowledge they have learnt previously has been impressive. Yesterday, children in Class 4 and Class 3 presented their learning in Religious Education to Governors who were incredibly impressed by their knowledge, understanding and enthusiasm for the subject. We have also seen more children working on their presentation and handwriting and have been awarded pen licences. Well done to Caleb, Emma, Freya, Matilda and Matilda.

Harvest Celebrations

On Tuesday 10th October 2023 the Burton Agnes School Community came together at St Martins Church to give our thanks to God for the Harvest. This half term we have been focusing on the Christian value of generosity which was fixed firmly in our minds as we celebrated harvest through story, poetry, song and prayer. A huge thank you for the generous food donations that were sent in to school. These have been made in to harvest boxes and distributed to the elderly in the community. We also had enough contributions to be able to donate to the Kingfisher Cafe in Bridlington, a charity that provides food for the homeless and hungry. We have received lots of thank yous from people who received our boxes which demonstrates how special they are.

friendship, care and trust

Football News

Last week saw the School Football team take part in a cluster tournament at Driffield School. It was the first time the children had played together as a team and they did an amazing job of beating other schools to ensure they came top of their group. The final, between Burton Agnes and Hutton Cranswick, sadly ended in defeat following a penalty shoot out. Well done to everyone who took part and to Mrs Young for managing the team.

FOBAS Christmas cards

This evening your child will bring home with them a proof of a Christmas card that they have designed. If you would like to purchase your child's card all you have to do is follow the instructions on the card and order and pay for your cards online. FOBAS will receive commission on every pack of cards sold so your purchase will support your child at school. The closing date for orders is 1st November and cards will be delivered to school.

Rebecca Class 4

This week

Odin Class 2

The children in Class 4 will be taking part in the Archbishops Award during the course of the year.

Please support their latest project, a Halloween Bake Sale after school on Tuesday.

Over the course of the year they will be supporting 3 charities which they have chosen.

FOBAS Harvest Supper

It was lovely to see so many families in school on Tuesday evening for the FOBAS harvest supper. The hall was packed full of people coming together to share the fruits of harvest, giving their thanks to farmers and food producers in the local community whilst raising money for the children of school to have extra bits that our school budget can't afford. A huge thank you to everyone who supported the Harvest Supper last night. Whether you helped to make the event happen, came along to enjoy the evening or donated, I am very grateful. It was a lovely evening and I am sure it really helped to boost the FOBAS funds. Don't forget we still have another fabulous raffle running with great prizes on offer.

Don't forget.

The photographer will be in school on Thursday 26th October to take individual photographs.

These usually make great Christmas presents and school receives commission for every sale. Thank you

Parent Consultation Evening

Parent Consultations take place on Thursday 26th October. If you have not received your appointment time, please contact school.

Class 1 and 2 sports after school club will not be running on this evening but paid for after school care for working families will still be provided.
