A Note from Mrs Jameson

The children at Burton Agnes are well and truly soaking up this terms topic of Heroes and Villains.

One of the highlights of my day is taking time to chat with the children about their learning. The children in Class 1 have thoroughly enjoyed the story of Supertato and have been fully immersed in working out ways to capture the Evil Pea. At one point there was a real danger that the Evil Pea had a side kick and the children even worked out a plan to capture her. They did forgive Mrs Grant Shaw, in the end!

The children in Class 3 had a fabulous day last week when they visited Murton park in York. This visit brought learning about the Anglo Saxons to life as the children spent time in the recreated village and explored what it was like to be a Saxon settler. They learnt about Saxon society, their daily lives and even got involved in an invasion from the Vikings! The children were a credit to the school and the staff at Murton park agreed.

Harvest Supper

FOBAS warmly invite you and your family to celebrate in our rural community and join us for the annual Harvest Supper

TUESDAY 8th OCTOBER, 5PM – 6:30PM

Goodbye Mrs Owen

On Friday we will be saying a fond farewell to Mrs Owen. Mrs Owen, who has been a dedicated and loyal teaching assistant at Burton Agnes for seven years and has worked made a difference to many children in school is moving to Bridlington School where she will take up the role of Cover Supervisor. I am sure you will join me in thanking Mrs Owen for all of her hard work, care and support over the years and wish her well in her new role. We will all miss her.

Harvest time!

Every year at Burton Agnes we celebrate harvest by gathering food for the elderly members of our school community. These are always gratefully received.

We would be grateful if you could send in packet, jars and tinned food, biscuits, pasta, tea, coffee etc by Thursday 10th October.

Any fresh items such as fruit and veg can be sent in on Friday 11th October.

Don't forget to join us at St Martins Church on Friday 11th October at 2pm to celebrate Harvest.

Thank you

Don't forget to send in your donations of toiletries for the School Council's Alternative harvest collection which will be donated to Driffield Food Bank who are in desperate need of these items. Thank you
