Our Year 6 pupils have spent this week developing resilience and teamwork skills in the beautiful surrounding of Lake Coniston. The feedback from pupils and staff has been incredibly positive yet again and I am very pleased that we have forged such strong links with the Eric Wright Trust. As always, I am mindful that without the dedication of the staff here such experiences are not possible and while they are incredibly enjoyable to participate in; such weeks demand 24 hours duty to be provided while forsaking home comforts. So, I would like to thank Mr Cooper, Mr Powell and Mrs McEvelly for giving their time up to support our Year 6's with creating some fabulous memories.

I have enjoyed being with the children in classes over the week and have seen some amazing progress across school. Spellings and times tables are still invaluable tools to enable children to fly with their learning so please practise at home for fluency. We aim for our children in
