Please note that we have added details of school events to the calendar above. For those parents that are new to us please look out for details for tickets to see your child perform in the Christmas productions. Unfortunately, tickets are restricted to 4 per family due to the size limitations of our hall. We do however, perform each show three times to enable all to be able to enjoy the magical experience. Details of the tickets will be out soon.

It has been another busy week at Carleton Green starting with the Saturday Carleton Green Goes Green activity. I was most distressed at not being with you all (because I had caught a nasty stomach bug) as it is an incredibly lovely experience to spend time voluntarily to improve our school collaboratively. Thank you to all that came to support these efforts. Mr Howell has done a marvellous job at replacing the rotten wood in the Little Chicks outdoor space which is now enhanced by the wonderful clearing carried out on Saturday. The children will benefit from this so much. Our local tree surgeon has delivered a huge pile of wood chip that needs to go in this area – if anyone can spare some time and has a wheel barrow we would really appreciate some assistance.

Our Year 5 and 6 pupils enjoyed a walk into Poulton on Tuesday with a visit to the library and Church. They carried out some fabulous learning which is clearly impacting on standards now back at school. Thank you to those that helped. A team of Year 5 and 6 athletes represented us on Thursday at the Interschool Indoor Athletics competition. Although we didn't get a place high enough to go through to the next round the children certainly performed well. Their conduct in a very busy and excited environment was amazing and both Mr Shuttleworth and I thoroughly enjoyed our time with the children. Today we have a team of footballers out of school competing against schools in the area. Fingers crossed they do well. I am aware that our dancers are working very hard to be ready for their performance at the Winter Gardens and will be looking forward to supporting them on the 25th. This dancing group has been formed before the summer from children that have auditioned to gain a place. We don't often have selective clubs which is why Miss Clarkson is running an additional club for those keen to perform.

Mr Cooper is to be absent from school for the next fortnight as he has been summoned to attend Jury Service. We have Mr Baldwin already organised to provide the cover so that the children will have a seamless education.

I would like to announce the exciting news of Miss Murray's pregnancy. She is due to leave for her maternity leave at the end of January all being well. We have been able to source an excellent teacher to provide the teaching in Heron's Class and so are confident that the children will have a further two successful terms. Miss Wilson trained with us and worked in Robins' Class earlier this year. She is most excited to be able to return to our team and already is attending staff INSETs with us.
