We have enjoyed another busy week at Carleton Green. Parents' evenings were well attended and we hope that you have all enjoyed the opportunity to discuss your child's learning with their teacher. Miss Gregson will happily speak to parents that were due to attend this Thursday at a mutually convenient time.

Thank you so much for the time and effort you have put into making the models for our library. They are absolutely stunning. We are awaiting our judge to help us award the winners and so in the meantime are enjoying the wonderful display! Reading is so important and we really want to instil a love of books in our children. Ways we have thought about are creating time for children to buddy up and read to each other, having book-share baskets in each classroom where you can bring a book you have read and take one that someone else has brought in, bring a book instead of sweets on a birthday, holding a lunchtime book club, creating an outdoor library for playtimes. If you have any further suggestions please send them in for the attention of Annie Billington (Carleton Green's Reading Ambassador).

Thank you for your continued support in and out of school, Susan McGrath, Headteacher.
