Our football Team made us very proud yet again on Tuesday playing against Charles Saer. 7-0! Well done!

Please let school know if your child achieves something outside of school.

Car parking is becoming a problem again with some families using the school carpark for dropping off and picking up. This is making it difficult for staff to find parking spaces safely. This week someone bumped Mrs Richardson's car causing damage. Our neighbours have also been in touch and have asked that we request greater consideration is given to parking from our families.
