A big well done to Owls Class for their assembly yesterday. The children did amazingly well sharing their learning so far this year. It was fantastic to hear the excitement in their voices when talking about their work. Well done Owls Class!

Club Notice!

Please note: Monday 4th December will be the final Construction and Drama club, due to staff training the following week.

There will be no clubs running from the 18th December.

If anyone has any nativity costumes that their children have outgrown, Mrs Catterall would happily use them in EYFS.

Rossall Christmas Carol Service

On Wednesday 13th December, Carleton Green will be holding their Christmas Carol Service at Rossall Chapel. This was a hugely popular event pre-covid and we feel its time to bring the festive fun back!

The chapel is bathed in candlelight as the children perform a range of carols that they have been practising in school. There are opportunities for families to sing along to some of our all-time favourites and some lovely readings from our Year 6 children to accompany the evening. Please feel free to come along to this festive occasion. Please book your tickets at carletongreen.schoolcloud.co.uk

Falcons Class have been making bread in DT this week. The children tasted a range of breads, then had a go at making their own white bread and are now using this knowledge to produce their own bread, with some interesting finishing touches. We look forward to seeing the final products.

Tea, coffee and biscuits will be on sale (£1) in the Wing before both nativity performances, on Wednesday and Thursday, from 9am.
