Another wonderful week at Carleton Green. The children have again, been working hard and having fun along the way. Auditions are about to begin for our Year 3/4 production, which is very exciting, and Little Chicks and Ducklings have been sharing all their amazing learning with their parents/carers at our wonderful open afternoons.

This weeks focus - Owls

In Owls Class, the children have been busy in their gymnastic lessons. They have loved exploring the space and have using their prior learning to apply balances, rolls and jumps to their sequences. They have also been thinking of a range of ways to travel around the hall.

Thank you for your continued support both within and beyond school.

Annie Jr the Musical

Here we have the lovely Niamh, Darcie and Emily, who starred in Annie Jr the Musical at Rossall Broadway last weekend.

I have heard amazing things about the production and the girls demonstrated their wonderful acting and singing skills flawlessly.

Well done girls, you are absolute superstars and we look forward to seeing you on stage in the future!

Taekwondo Success

Here we have Shelley-May, one of our lovely Year 3 children, after winning her latest Taekwondo competition.

Shelley-May works hard in everything she does, and it is no surprise to see her winning here.

A massive well-done Shelley-May. We are very proud of you!

World Religion Day

Over the past week, children across the school have been looking at different festivals people celebrate in different religions. The children came together yesterday to share their learning in assembly with the whole school.

Well done to each class for their amazing work!

Superstar in the making!

Here we have Josh, one of our lovely Year 4 children, who last night performed in the opening night of the Blackpool Gang Show at the Grand Theatre. Josh has been rehearsing twice a week since the beginning of September and last night he was absolutely amazing.

Josh loves performing on stage and it was great to watch his confidence grow throughout rehearsals and see all his hard work pay off last night. He still has 3 more shows to go!
