General School Information

The School

Castle Hill Primary School, is a county community school for girls and boys between 4 and 11 years of age.

Greenbank Campus is situated in the heart of Winklebury, and is surrounded by a heavily populated residential estate, which is roughly 30 years old. Castle Hill is very lucky to be surrounded by vast open land. It possesses its own allotment and playing fields. Greenbank Campus has eight self-contained classrooms and caters for a two-class intake.

Following the consultation for additional primary school places in Rooksdown, Hampshire County Council decided to increase the physical capacity of Castle Hill Junior School. This enabled the school to admit pupils at age 4+ and to increase the provision of 210 pupils in the first phase increasing to 420 pupils in the second phase of a strategic expansion of the school. The additional provision at Rooksdown is managed by the Headmaster and Governors of the previously known Castle Hill Junior School. On opening in September 2015, the school was named Castle Hill Primary School - Rooksdown Campus. Castle Hill Primary School also retains the existing junior school facility; this school is known as Castle Hill Primary School – Greenbank Campus.

The Rooksdown Campus opened in September 2015 with 30 pupils on role in the first year and in September 2016 this expanded to 60 pupils in Year R. Rooksdown continued to grow based on a two-form entry and was full in September 2022. The building is designed with a ‘Contemporary Rural’ feel taking into consideration the design principles of the adjacent housing development, the beautiful school grounds and chalk meadow flowers colour theme. Rooksdown Campus is very lucky to also possess its own playing fields and is bordered by open land.

Castle Hill Primary School has very high expectations. Our aim is to provide the highest quality of educational opportunity for all children. As a result, the school has a strong local, national and indeed international reputation based on outstanding results and awards for excellence over many years. These results have been achieved through partnership with the entire community. In October 2019, Castle Hill was presented with a globally recognised award being named the first county school to be awarded ‘World Class Status’ after being accredited as a High-Performance Learning (HPL) school. To add to an award-winning year the school was also selected for publication in this year’s prestigious Parliamentary Review.

High standards of behaviour, adherence to a strict uniform policy and support with homework are just some examples of our core values. If you share such values together we can help Castle Hill Primary School on its continual journey for excellence.

Castle Hill Primary School is maintained by the Hampshire Education Authority.

- “Castle Hill Primary School” is a Good School
- Personal development is outstanding

- The conduct of pupils at Castle Hill is exemplary. All day, every day, pupils prove the school motto that ‘manners matter’. Pupils value this culture greatly, so much so that they refer to the school as ‘a family’.
- The school has the ambition to provide a ‘world-class education in every class’. Staff constantly look for ways to develop the curriculum and improve provision. All subjects have a clear and sequenced curriculum that sets out the key knowledge, skills and vocabulary that pupils will learn at each stage.
- Pupils’ behaviour and attitudes are very strong. The whole school community is rightly proud of how well the pupils behave.
