

CLHS Focus on Careers

Ms Cottam's guide to all things careers

Welcome to the first 'Lockdown 2021' careers newsletter. I understand that these are unprecedented times, however despite everything, your child still needs to be in the process of deciding their future path. In terms of information, guidance and support of applications it is business as usual. As always, I am here to help you prepare for your next steps and this time I am focusing on 'Careers' activities that you can do both at home and in school.
