Parr Hall Celebration Primary Arts Network (PAN): Years 2–6

On Monday evening, the stage at Parr Hall came alive as our talented pupils from Years 2–6 delivered a breathtaking performance inspired by our PAN theme: “The earth does not belong to us, we belong to the earth.” Their work explored how every action, every voice, every choice becomes part of a larger story, a message captured beautifully in the PAN showcase title, “Once Spoken, Forever Echoed.”

The performance opened with a gentle, heartfelt performance of Back to the Earth by Jason Mraz. Our young musicians played ukuleles with confidence and joy, their melodies blending seamlessly with rich, warm vocals. The song’s message (returning to nature and rediscovering our place within it) was delivered with such sincerity that many in the audience were visibly moved.

Our second act transformed Parr Hall into a world of swirling colour and motion. Children took on roles representing the oceans, volcanoes, forests, wildlife, and the many colours of our earth, using flowing fabrics to create a living, breathing landscape on stage.

The performance of Colours of the Wind was both visually and emotionally powerful. Children moved with purpose and intention, illustrating the delicate balance of nature and our responsibility to protect it.

A Year 3 performer said:

“I got to be the ocean, and I loved showing how the waves move. It felt like we were telling the earth’s story.”

For the grand finale, the entire group came back together for an uplifting celebration song: “It’s Our World!” The energy was electric, voices soared and the message of unity and stewardship rang out clearly. Watching every child sing their hearts out reminded us all of the importance of hope, action, and community.

One Year 6 student summed it up perfectly:

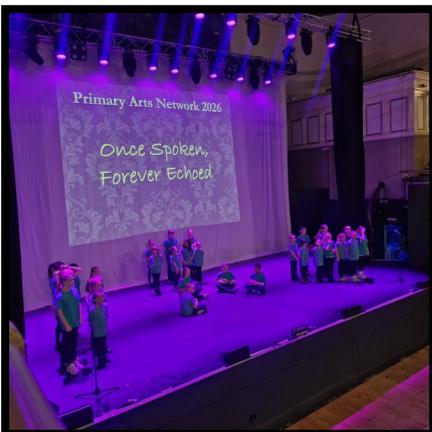

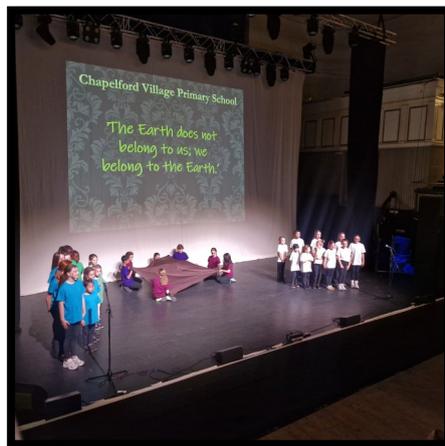

“Singing together made me feel like we can all make a difference. It’s our world so we should look after it!”

We are incredibly proud of all our performers. Their hard work, determination, creativity, and resilience in the weeks leading up to the event shone through in every note, every step, every moment on stage. The children were nothing short of magnificent and they truly embodied the spirit of this year’s PAN theme and represented Chapelford perfectly.

A huge thank you to the staff and families who supported them along the way too. Your encouragement helped make this evening both meaningful and magical.

Here’s to the echoes they created and the positive change they will continue to inspire.

Celebrating Reading Success

Some of our EYFS readers enjoying their VIP library time, earned by reading 20 times at home! They enjoyed looking at all the books and selecting their favourites to read.

EYFS children spending their golden coins in our vending machine—earned for reading 60 times outside school! That is an amazing achievement! Happy reading!

Out of School Achievements

Ella from class 16 took part in another tennis tournament last weekend. She stepped up to mixed competition and won the final 10-1! Showing great determination to get the win—her family and so proud of her! And so are we!

Charlie Class 3, entered a Judo competition at his club last weekend and did fantastically well! Charlie had some really tough fights and he showed great sporting behaviour: making sure he looked out for his friends and other competitors during and between fights, checking they were ok.

This is a picture of Charlie with his brother, Harold, and their trophies. Charlie is very proud of himself and will be bringing his trophy in to show the class.

Congratulations to Emily H from Class 17, who won the National Schools Trampoline Finals in Derby last weekend., representing Chapelford. This is a massive achievement for Emily, having competed in two other rounds to reach the finals.

Emily is now the 2025/2026 National Schools Champion or Cat 1 Elite for years 1-6, for the second year winning! Emily is hoping to make it a third next year, before she goes to High School, and we are sure she will!
