Friday 8th July 2022

The absolute highlight for some of the children this week has been the Chapelford sport's days, although the great British weather has postponed EYFS sport's day until next week. It was wonderful to see the children competing against each other once again and being able to have our families here to cheer them on. All the staff commented on how supportive the children were towards each other showing great team spirit whilst also demonstrating respect towards the children in the other houses.

There were a range of traditional races that the children took part in allowing them to excel in different ways. The sack race especially was a joy to watch. The younger children in year 1 just had their heads peeping out while the sack only just covered the knees of the older children. I think that next year we need to buy a range of different sized sacks! The egg and spoon races were also great fun, watching the concentration on the children's faces trying to keep the egg on the spoon and still go in a straight line. We could clearly see some budding sprinters in the running races and perhaps one day we will watch them compete in the Olympics. We're sure that EYFS will have an equally enjoyable time at their event.

The stakes are high to earn house points this year as there will be a fantastic reward for the winning house. Those of you who had children in school a few years ago may remember the beach party held on the field for all the children from the winning house. This year's reward will not necessarily be the same, but it will be equally impressive.

Wishing you all a lovely weekend.

Kind regards

Mrs Joanne Hewson

OUT OF SCHOOL ACHIEVEMENTS

Congratulations and well done to

On Sunday 3rd July Caitlyn from class 21 performed with Stagecoach Performing Arts Warrington at The Crewe Lyceum. Everyone is still flying high from an amazing performance, even with props, microphone changes and a raked stage to contend with, the ensemble acquitted themselves with distinction.

Arthur from class 4 took part in a 2 night dance show at the Parr Hall with The Dance Studio Warrington. He had a great time and did really well and was very determined.

Well done to you all!
