In our PSHCE sessions this week we have been looking at how to keep healthy.

We reviewed our prior French learning by completing a 4-a-day calculations in French.

French

On European Languages Day, we linked our French learning to our English lessons.

We learnt how to order food and drink in a café and then wrote the dialogue in our French books using correct speech punctuation.

Je voudrais un sandwich au jambon et un jus d'orange" said the lady.
"Vain! Bon appétit!" exclaimed the waitress.
"Merci beaucoup. Mmm. C'est délicieux!" beamed the lady.
"Avez-vous?" "Merci beaucoup," smiled the waitress.
"Vain! Bon appétit!" exclaimed the waitress.
The waitress carefully placed down the food and smiled.
"Merci beaucoup. Mmm. C'est délicieux!" beamed the lady. As she picked up her food and took a bite. The piano man plays the soft melody.

Learning Goal:
I can create dialogue which involves ordering food at a restaurant.

Waitress: "Bonjour! Vous désirez?"
said the waitress.
Customer: "Je voudrais un sandwich au jambon," explained the hungry customer. "Et un jus d'orange."
Waitress: The waitress beamed. "Vain! Bon appétit!"
Customer: "Merci beaucoup!" the customer smiled. "C'est délicieux."
Waitress: "Avez-vous?" "Merci beaucoup," said the waitress.

"Bonjour! Vous désirez?" beamed the waitress.
The waitress grabbed a pen and started to write. A loud bang came from the kitchen, a glass fell on the floor. The customer went to take another look at the menu.
"Je voudrais un sandwich au jambon et un jus d'orange," replied the customer.
