

CHESTERTON NEWSLETTER

24th June 2019

Dear parents/ carers,

We had a fabulous week in school last week as it was “pop-up literacy” week. Each class had an author or an illustrator coming in to talk to them and do activities with them. As a school we received 15 books per class by the author/ illustrator who visited. The feedback from the children was really positive and the children have produced some wonderful pieces of work.

Y5 went on a visit to NCA where they took part in some activities; when I saw them there they certainly appeared to be engrossed in their learning.

Apparently we are going to have a mixture of weather this week, ranging from a heatwave to thunderstorms, which will make it really difficult to choose how to dress appropriately. If you see me covered in sun cream, wearing a sun hat and sunglasses whilst carrying an umbrella, you know it’s been “weird weather” day.

I appeared to have a lot of meetings at the start and the end of the day last week so wasn’t able to be on the gate as often as I would like; I’m hoping to manage it more this week.

I hope you all have a great week.

Toni Jackson

THANK YOU

Thank you very much for all who wore their sunglasses to school on Friday. Between us we raised £110 for the Aniridia Network 😊

SOCs would like to thank everyone who helped with, or came and supported, their stall at Cambridge Festival on Saturday. £300 was raised for the school. I would like to add my thanks to SOC's for arranging yet another fantastic fundraising activity for the school.
